Secret Garden, in the Amstelpark, Amsterdam is a sound piece for Android mobile gps-equipped devices to be heard through stereo headphones.

You can walk around the park to discover usually inaudible sounds - from the vibrations inside trees to magnetic fields or the songs of water beetles.

Download and install the “radio aporee” app and the sounds before you start the walk. You can use the free WiFi network “Free Wifi Hello Zuidas”. The walk starts at the Glazen Huis (see map.)

Follow the instructions at :
www.bmbcon.demon.nl/justin/secretgarden.html
or use the QR code printed on this leaflet.

Make sure that your phone has GPS and mobile data turned on.

Find your way around with the map printed on the back. You can find sounds in the area marked with the concentric circles.
